

Dependent Verification

Dependent verification is needed for any dependent (spouse or child) added to medical and/or dental coverage. Documents to verify dependents are listed here in this chart.

Dependent	Documentation Options to Verify Dependent
Spouse	Date of marriage less than 12 months	Submit a copy of one of the following: - Government-Issued Marriage Certificate, or - I-94 form plus a Government-Issued Marriage Certificate.
	Date of marriage greater than 12 months	Submit a copy of one of the following combinations: - Most recent federal tax return with both your name and your spouse's name AND proof of joint ownership dated within the last six months (ex. Bank/Credit Card Statement; Lease/Mortgage Statement; Utility Bill), or - Government-Issued Marriage Certificate AND proof of joint ownership dated within the last six months, or - I-94 form AND a Government-Issued Marriage Certificate.
Child(ren)	Submit a copy of one of the following: - Most recent federal tax return with your child's name - Government-Issued Birth Certificate - Hospital Birth Record (if the date of birth is within 90 days of your child's coverage effective date) - Adoption Certificate/Placement Agreement - Document of Legal Guardianship/Custody Document must list you and/or your verified spouse as the parent(s).
Stepchild(ren)	Submit a copy of both of the following: - Government-Issued Marriage Certificate - Government-Issued Birth Certificate Document must list you and/or your verified spouse as the parent(s).

You have 30 days to provide documentation to verify your dependents; otherwise, coverage for your dependents will be canceled at the end of the verification period and not back to the original date of coverage.

- Vital Records Request: It can take 4-8 weeks for vital records to be processed in some states and countries. Order your documentation early in the verification process to ensure receipt.
- Photocopying Vital Records: Some states and county clerk offices prohibit the copying of vital records (e.g., Florida, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, etc.). Dependents in these states should request a non-certified vital record for the verification.

Dependent Verification

To begin the Process:

- Log on to bswift by visiting jabilbenefits.bswift.com (<https://jabilbenefits.bswift.com/>).
- Once logged in, click on "Upload Documentation" under Common Actions on the Home Page.

- Select the correct type of document you are uploading and that your document is labeled correctly so it can be identified. Some documents may be reviewed by AI. Correctly labeling your document is critical to avoid your documents being denied.

Uploaded Documents

- You may also submit documentation via the mobile app or by mail. If you mail, do not send original documents. Send copies only.
 - Jabil Benefits Service Center
Attn: Dependent Verification
P.O. Box 804057
Chicago, IL 60680
- Notice of approval, denial, or more information needed will be sent to your preferred method of communication as noted in bswift. Your HR partner may also help by reviewing the Employee File located in bswift.
- For newly hired employees: If your dependents fail verification, coverage will end at the end of the verification period and not back to the original date of coverage. Claims incurred during the verification period will be processed by the insurance carriers. Premiums are NOT refunded back to the effective date of coverage as coverage was in effect during this timeframe. Terminations are made on a prospective basis.
- For qualified life events: Dependents added to your coverage during a qualified life event will only be added after you have provided satisfactory proof of the dependent's status and of the life event.
- Dependent coverage is contingent upon receipt and approval of all required documentation within the required timeframe.
- Information about the benefit plans offered by Jabil is located in the Jabil Benefits & Wellbeing Guide (<https://jabilbenefitsguide.com/>).

Need Help?

877.525.2363

8 a.m. – 8 p.m. Eastern, Monday – Friday